Fr Fitton's Sketches - page 312 - Mass early as 1830

Fr Fitton arrived in Hartford Aug 7, 1830

"The present large and influential body of Catholics at Springfield were represented in 1830 by three families and a few unmarried men who were visited by the Missionary (Fr Fitton) in connection with the few living at Thompsonville, Westfield Chicopee and other riber towns, once every two or three months, as circumstances permitted when Mass was and the Holy Sacrament administered in whatever house was found to be most convenient"

B Fr Fitton's sketches Page 316 - viz - Church at Chicopee

"The early church history of this, like that of many towns and villages of New England commences with the toil and untiring industry of Ireland's exiled sons, who were employed at the excavation of Canals and other important labors that have since brought wealth and prosperity to thousands. The few Catholics who were employed in the construction of the Canal of which is now the flourishing manufacturing town of Chicopee, were attended by our Missionary as early as 1830. The boarding house, a temporary building which stood near the river bank, where the dam is now constructed, the only building in the place, save the grist mill and the home of the miller, served by Chapel and all other purposes. The Cabot Manufacturing Co being incorporated in 1832, an impetus was given to the erection of mills and dwellings for the operatives and soon a beautiful flourishing town arose, giving employment to its thousands of mechanics and mill operatives

The faithful who in 1830 numbered 30 souls having in ten years increased to 250 a church was projected for their accomodation. Rev John S Brady, who ~~with~~ attended this station, in connection with other stations west of the Conn River, encouraged by the promised assistance of the little noble band, commenced in 1841 the erection of what subsequently was St Matthews Church ~~by~~ which was blessed by the Bishop, Sept 29, 1843 (This date incorrect — correct date Oct 1, 1843). Rev B Cavanaugh was appointed as an assistant to Rev Fr Brady in 1845 and these gentlemen continued to attend alternately Chicopee and other stations till 1848 when Fr Strain was appointed to the pastoral care of the rising congregation"
